Homework

- Reading Homework Example

While reading at home this week, look for apostrophes. When and why are they used? Can you make a list and group the sorts of words that need apostrophes.

At school at the moment we are focussing on our retrieval skills. This involves finding information within a text by looking for keywords and phrases. While reading at home this week with an adult, use your 'Spotter' skills to ask and answer questions about your book.

While reading at home this week write your own inference question based on the story that you are reading.

Sam says to change anytime after midday from 12 hours to 24 hours clock just add 12 to the minutes. Is he correct? Can you explain his thinking?
