Pain, grief and sacrifices,
This is life as we know it
We look back to shadows of former freedom
Where we were masters of our own,
But now our future is controlled by our leaders
And the only safe place is Home
But when we have caught up with this battle,
Our communities will rise stronger than before
We will overcome this,
And we will be ready, to
Socialise,
Meet families
And live a normal life forever more
