

Lockdown

One day when I was passing through town,
People avoided each other,
No one was around,
There was not a sound,
No one met my eye,
It was sad seeing people so gloomy.

We look back at our former freedom
And we wish for a cure for the terrible covid19,
Our lives are controlled by our leaders,
Even if we feel alone,
We can still overcome this time,
There will be pain
We will stand up and fight,
Cause this is life as we know it.
