

Maths at Home

Here is a list of online maths resources to help develop your child's understanding and skills in maths:

Nrich is a Cambridge University website offering maths investigations and games to develop problem solving and higher order thinking skills.

<http://nrich.maths.org/>

Tutorial maths for adults and also suitable for KS2 children.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/maths>

OSWEGO Maths - lots of maths games to play - can be used with your child to improve specific curriculum skills

<http://resources.oswego.org/games/>

Fun online mental maths practise activities:

<http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/maths/>

Printable maths resources to aid learning at home:

<http://www.senteacher.org/print/mathematics/>

For a step by step guide on using a number line:

<http://www.slideshare.net/squirky/addition-using-a-number-line>

More maths support:

<http://www.amathsdictionaryforkids.com/dictionary.html> - maths glossary

<http://www.mathsisfun.com/>

<http://www.coolmath4kids.com/>

Tips for helping your child to enjoy maths at home:

- Point out the different shapes to be found around your home.
- Take your child shopping and talk about the quantities of anything you buy.
- Let your child handle money and work out how much things cost.

- Look together for numbers on street signs and car registration plates.